

Name _____ Per _____ Date _____

WHAT'S YOUR SEX I. Q?

Read each question carefully and mark True or False (T or F) on the line. If you are unsure of an answer, give it your best guess. Try to make the false statements true.

- _____ 1. A female can become pregnant the first time she has sexual intercourse.

- _____ 2. Abstinence is 100% effective against unwanted pregnancies, transmission of STD's and emotional baggage.

- _____ 3. Fertilization of the egg (known as conception) occurs inside the vagina.

- _____ 4. Oral contraceptives (The Pill) prevents pregnancy and transmission of sexually transmitted diseases.

- _____ 5. A person must show at least one symptom of having contracted HIV/AIDS to infect others.

- _____ 6. About 80% of the women with Chlamydia have no visible symptoms of the disease.

- _____ 7. Teenage girls have easier pregnancies and healthier babies.

- _____ 8. A female can become pregnant during sexual intercourse without the male having an orgasm.

- _____ 9. Herpes simplex type II can be cured.

- _____ 10. The HIV virus can be transmitted by oral sex