

|                                               | Proficient with Distinction4                                                                                                                   | Proficient3                                                                                                         | Developing Proficiency2                                                                                           | Substantially Below Proficiency1                                                                                     | No Evidence of Proficiency0 |
|-----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| Interpretation and understanding       | Analyzes and describes the art form and its overall impact in elaborate detail based on concepts introduced in class.                                      | Analyzes and describes the art form and its overall impact in detail                                                            | Analyzes and describes the art form and its overall impact in limited detail                                                  | Fails to analyze and describe the art form and its overall impact.                                                               | No evidence of work                     |
| Appreciation of the Arts &amp; Culture | Explains or demonstrates in detail how the art form is an integral part of everyday life and society. (Includes accurate information, care log and photos) | Explains how the art form is an integral part of everyday life and society. (Includes partial information, care log and photos) | Identifies how the art form is an integral part of everyday life/society. (Includes partial information and partial care log) | Makes little or no reference to how the art form is an integral part of everyday life and society (Includes minimal information) | No evidence of work                     |